Cuonzo Martin's first big test will come against a familiar non-conference opponent.

Cal will play Syracuse on Nov. 20 at Madison Square Garden, the 2K classic announced Wednesday morning. The game is scheduled to be played after the conclusion of the Iowa-Texas game starting at 4 p.m. Both games will air on ESPN2. The winners of the two games will play in a championship game the following day at 4 p.m. with the consolation game scheduled for 2 p.m.

Syracuse ended Cal's 2012-2013 season, winning a third round NCAA Tournament meeting 66-60 in San Jose, Calif. The two teams played just a few months later with Syracuse once again beating Cal 92-81 in the Maui Invitational early in the 2013-14 slate.

The Cuonzo Martin era is scheduled to begin Nov. 14 and Nov. 16 in Berkeley for the first two rounds of the 2K Classic against two opponents to be named at a later date.
