REGIONAL ROUNDS - CONSOLATION

IPFW vs. Savannah State Postgame Quotes

November 13th, 2004
University of Memphis
FedExForum • Memphis, Tenn.

IPFW

Head Coach Doug Noll

"First of all I want to thank the Gazelle Group and the Coaches vs. Cancer for allowing us to play in this tournament. We really appreciate it. It means alot to us and we have some kids directly related to cancer in their families who have lost some people and we are glad to be a part of this.

"This was a tough game to coach because we knew we could play better and no disrespect our kids watched Memphis pretty much dismantle Savannah State. Memphis is a whole different level but in 10 days we have to play Notre Dame. I was pleased with our kids but it took us to halftime to really get it going. We had to get on them at halftime and we were lethargic in the first half. We are a young team and when David Simon gets back hopefully for the next game we will be a completely different team. We rely on Simon a lot because he is so big and strong. For right now Quintin Butler (20 points and 19 rebounds) and Beau Bauer had a very good game today.

Savannah State

Assistant Coach Chris Willis

"I was very pleased with the progress from our first game to our second game. Our effort and intensity was much better today than it was in the first game, and that was one of the areas we were looking to improve upon."

"I think these two games here will help us very much because we are a very young team right now, and a lot of our freshmen are getting a lot of playing time. As they get better, they are going to learn from this, and we'll take this experience back to Savannah and learn from it and work hard for the next game."
